"College of Science" Raided.

United States Marshal Laughammer, Postal Inspectors Hooton and Sharron, and Secret Service Agent Charles Wright yesterday morning raided the "College of Science" conducted by "Dr." Theo-dore White, at 1917 east Pratt street, Baltimore, and as a result the "doctor" was hold in $10,000 bail for the action of the federal grand jury by United States Commissioner Bond yesterday afternoon, charged with using the mails for fraudulent purposes. He waived examination.

Three bairs out of a black cat's tail, seven hairs out of a white mule's tail, eight drops of blood out of a dog's tail and one or two equally unexpected in-gredients constitute a love potion, thous-ands of packages of which were taken in White, who advertises himself in the White, who advertises himself in the newspapers as being the "only reliable" spiritualistic medium in Baltimore, has conducted his "College of Science" for the past two years. When the "college" on east Pratt street was raided the United States officials found eighteen young women working for White, typewriting, mailing his books on "The Higher Occult Science," and putting up and wrapping a potion, warranted to cause love at first sight. In the safe, which the "doctor" opened at the urgent solicitation of the United States officers, was found nearly $13,000 in officers, was found nearly $13,000 in cash, and White admitted that his operations had extended all over this country, Europe, Central America and a por-tion of South America. Marshal Lang-hammer now has in his possession the names of patrons of the institution re siding in Honduras, Central America.

White's circulars stated that the "College of Science" was prepared to teach hypnotism, mental science, telep-athy, and "higher occultism" in mailorder courses at $7 a course. After course was divided into seven sections, and one of the sections was devoted to charms and incantations.

When the officials raided the "col-busily engaged in making "love pow-der," which they were inclosing with certain prayers, and which the individ-ual desirous of attracting and holding the affections of the constitutions. the affections of the opposite sex must wear in a bag around his or her neck. The powder which works such wonder ful results is of a dark, lead color.

The prisoner, who is about thirty-six years old, has lived in Baltimore for the past fifteen years, and is well known among those who patronized the spiritu-

William Oliver, a Washington navy yard helper, swallowed poison early yesterday morning, slashed Mrs. Oliver's throat died at 6 o'clock last night. Mrs. Oliver was but slightly injured. She was in bed when attacked. She was awakened by the thrust, and as she rose her hus-band rushed out of the room. The woman found blood streaming down her Oliver became reconciled to her sgain, and they were on good terms until a few days ago. The husband claimed to have seen his wife kiss another man. She denied that she had misconducted herself, but the husband continued to be moody. Yesterday morning when he arose he attempted the double tragedy.

APPEARING OLD

Acts as a Bar to Profitable Employment.

You cannot afford to grow old.

In these days of strenuous competition it is necessary to maintain, as long as possible ones youthful appearance.

It is impossible to do this without retaining a loxurious growth of hair.

The presence of Dandruff indicates the presence of a burrowing germ which lives and thrives on the roots of the hair until it causes total baldness. Newbro's Herpicide is the only known destroyer of this pest, and it is as effective, as it is delightful to use

Hicks for April.

Hicks, the weather prognosticator, does not hold out the prospect of a much more agreeable month in April than was in March. There are to be many storms-of thunder, sleet and hail, he says-and a great variety of other weather. Easter is to be the end of an ugly storm period, as he reads the signs.

Hicks starts the month in an agreeable mood, but a change is soon to come according to his forecast. The first regular storm period extends from the 2nd to the 7th. Responsible 4th the 2nd taking a course the subscriber was guar-anteed to be able to influence any one in a magnetic or hypnotic way. The rain. During the 4th, 5th and 6th, wide areas of cloudiness and rain will pass into severe squalls, thunder gunts and hail in various localities.

A reactionary storm period is central on the 9th, 10th and 11th, causing frosts in many sections during the nights ranging between the 12th to 15th. Hail storms will be most natural result.

A series of threatening to violent thunder storms will be quite natural from about the 21st to 25th.

With the atmospheric pressure at and about normal during these disturbances, nothing more than normal April thunder showers may occur; but should the ba-rometer fall suddenly to very low read-ings, violent to tornadic storms w uld be quite probable.

Threatening storm clouds will gather Attempted Double Tragedy.

Oliver rushed to the brink of the river and jumped in. After struggling in the water a short time he scrambled back to the shore. Several persons who had seen him leap, pulled him out, and he was taken to the Georgetown University Hospital, where his wife had preceeded him. The Olivers lived at 1014 Wisconsin avenue, with the parents of Mrs. Oliver. One day last summer, while sitting in the door of her home in another part of the city, Mrs. Oliver says her husband threatened her life. She returned to her parents. Oliver says her husband threatened her life. She returned to her parents. Oliver became reconciled to her sagain, and the was taken to that institution. When she reached the hospital, the physician in charge said she was almost dead and her pulse could not be taken until treatment had been begun. As soon as she regained consciousness and could tell regained consciousness and could tell who she was, the hospital authorities communicated with her father, who went immediately to her. Late last night the physicians said she would probably recover, as the antidote had been administered promptly. Miss Straban is eighteen years old, and a scholar at the Benning School. The Breath of Life.

It's a significant fact that the strongest animal of its size, the gorilla, also has the largest lungs. Powerful lungs means powerful creatures. How to keep the breathing organs right should be man's chiefest study. Like thousands of others, Mrs. Ora A. Stephens, of Port Williams, O., has learned how to do this. She writes: "Three bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery stepped my cough of two years and cured me of what my friends thought consumption. Oh, it's grand for throat and lung troubles."
